

The Big Prize

Peter Borwein

RESEARCH INSTITUTE

J. Morris

”Curiosity is part of human nature .... It is the desire for truth and the response to the beauty and elegance of mathematics that drives mathematicians”

Landon Clay

(Wealthy mutual fund magnate and Harvard English graduate.)

Extraordinary science is driven by extraordinary passion and extraordinary talent.

The biggest, oldest and arguably most important problem in Mathematics is the so called Riemann problem (of 1859).

